

November 13, 2015

By Derek Pridemore

With torque calculated we focused on motor selection, and using the specifications for various motors a fitness graph was made. Our team then worked on our second presentation for the semester.