

Project Scope

Detects material type and size of an object and sort accordingly. The system operates using a traditional industry recognized automation system. Written learning aid guides training exercises.